COACHES' POST-GAME COMMENTS

COACH SCHEMBECHLER of Michigan: "We came to play and took it away from them. It was our X game right from the first. We kept our poise after those first two fumbles.

"Taylor's 33-yard touchdown run was just an off-tackle play for a first down. We gained some yardage off tackle today. (Asked about setting records) XX I didn't even know we had set any records. I tell you, those long runs really eat up the yardage.

"We've got to keep improving. Ever since the game at East Lansing, which was our worst of the year, we've been getting better every week.

"I was surprised that Iowa's passing wasn't more XX effective. We had great respect for Iowa, particularly their passing and Green's running. Manning and Reardon are XXB two fine receivers. I thought that Iowa seemed to be hurting physically on defense-- several XX players limping and XXX that type of thing.

"(Asked if Mandich was MEX pulled or ejected) I pulled him. He may have been kicked off, too; but I pulled him.

"You know, I predicted 42-7 for Ohio State today. (Asked for a prediction for next week) I don't predict for my own team."

COACH RAY NAGEL of Iowa: "Michigan is a superior football team. They are the strongest team we have played this year. They have really jelled since losing to Michigan State. They have fine, strong running backs. Taylor is an outstanding runner. They did everything real good today -- run, pass, kick, defense, etc."⁰⁰

⁰⁰"Our tackling was sloppy. We just couldn't stop their running game."⁰⁰

⁰⁰"They just knock the tar out of us. They really hit. We couldn't do anything good against ~~the~~ them -- offensively or defensively."⁰⁰ n

When asked how Michigan could do next Saturday against Ohio State, Nagel said: "They can beat anybody in the country."⁰⁰
