Comments by the Coaches

Bo Schembächer of Michigan ----about Dennis Franklin " I told you guys he was a decent quarterback and that's after only 3 days of practice after not playing 10 days....I'd say that is pretty good. He actually played better than I thought he would. Franklin bailed us out several times when we needed the yardage. He can do a lot of things. This is the kind of team we can be with him in there and this is the kind of game we want to play. In answer to a question did Franklin do a lot of the play calling himself Bo said, Franklin did a lot of the play calling and I feel his selection was very good.

That had to look like an aerial circus for us.

I thought Colorado played better than it did against LSU. They hit hard and are a very physical team. Logan is a fabulous athlete. I was very satisfied with the game.

Larry Johnson had a knee, Carl Russ and Dave Metz pinch neverse in the neck. Bo was concerned about the injuries and said, "We can't afford to lose any people. We lack depth.

Bill Bakkey Mallory of Colorado --It was their defense. We weren't consistent on offense at all, especially on first down. But they just play great defense all the time. The punt return really hurt us.

We had to play differently after that. You have too sfx when you're down and we don't play catch up football very well. When you're down you have to throw.

We are not making the big play offensively. With a quarterback like Franklin we expected Michigan to throw (answering a question about Michigan's passing) .....

We had worked on punt coverage all week and we knew they had a pair of good kids back there, but Brown is just quite a back.
