ALABAMA HEAD FOOTBALL COACH BILL CURRY

"It was a very difficult way to lose a football game. I thought Jamie Morris' great running ability and a lapse in concentration by our football team put us in a position where we had a long way to fight back. And I couldn't be prouder of the team for the way that we did that. Our team has had the ability to fight through a lot of things this year.

"It came down to whether Michigan could make one great play -- and they did -- and that was the difference in the game. Two outstanding football teams that want to win very badly, it usually comes down to a few key plays. We felt all week that this would be a fourth-quarter ballgame.

"When we got back in it and took the lead, I knew Michigan wouldn't roll over and we told our players that. We knew they were going to do whatever they had to do to get back the lead and we were going to have to make a great play somewhere along the way to stop them.

"So, I was proud of our effort. I wish we would've played with the same type of concentration for the entire 60 minutes. We will have to make that happen and we will. I think Michigan deserves a lot of credit because of the situation with Bo Shembechler and I want to congratulate all them on the fine job they did."
