Dear Campus Community Member,

I would like to share with you the 10-Point Promise of the Department of Public Safety when responding to survivors of sexual assault.

You may be reading this because you or someone you know has been involved in a sexual assault or you are a victim of a sexual assault perpetrated by an acquaintance.

Sexual assault is any form of unwanted sexual contact without consent and/or obtained through the use of force, threat of force, intimidation or coercion.

It is our duty to help you and we take that duty very seriously. We want to help all members of our community and that includes you.

This brochure outlines our 10-Point Promise to provide you with the outstanding service you deserve from your University Police. I ask that you please give our law enforcement experts an opportunity to work with you and to assist you in one more phase of the healing process.

We are your police department. We are here to help you. It's not just our duty, it's our promise.

Sincerely,

Ken Magee
Chief of Police

University of Michigan Department of Public Safety

University of Michigan Department of Public Safety

Sexual Assault Response 10-point Promise

Sexual assault is a very serious concern of the Department of Public Safety. All of our male and female police officers are trained in handling incidents of sexual assault and are available to meet with you. If you have been sexually assaulted on campus, you are encouraged to report the assault to the University Police. Our Department will promise you the following:

WE WILL meet with you privately at a place of your choice.

WE WILL only notify your parents*, spouse or significant other if you ask us to.

WE WILL treat you and your concerns with courtesy, sensitivity, dignity, understanding and professionalism.

WE WILL openly listen with no prejudice and you will not be blamed for what occurred.

WE WILL seriously consider your case regardless of your gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or the gender or status of the suspect.

WE WILL assist you in arranging for any necessary hospital treatment or other medical needs. If needed, we also will assist you with emergency housing.

WE WILL assist you in privately contacting confidential counseling and other available resources.

WE WILL investigate your case, while keeping you regularly updated. However, it is your choice to proceed with an investigation.

WE WILL discuss and explain the criminal justice court process. Ultimately, it is your choice to proceed with criminal prosecution.

WE WILL continue to be available to answer your questions, to explain your options and to explain your rights.

Every step of the process is your choice!

If you believe that you are a survivor of sexual assault, call the University of Michigan Police at (734) 763-1131 and inform us that you want to make a sexual assault report. You may call anytime, day or night. We are always available.

If we fail to achieve any part of the above promise, the Chief of Police, Ken Magee, is available to meet with you personally to address any concerns. To schedule a meeting with the Chief you may call (734) 763-3434 or email: public.safety@umich.edu. The University Police want to partner with you to make our campus safe for students, faculty, staff and visitors.
