

ICLS 2000

Transfer of Copyright Agreement

Completion of this form transfers to the Regents of the University of Michigan (“University”), copyright holder for the ICLS 2000 proceedings, all of my copyright in the Paper described below. Lawrence Erlbaum Associates will publish the proceedings, but will not hold the copyright. This form must be signed and returned before your paper can be published in the Proceedings.

The Paper entitled:

is herewith submitted for publication both in the ICLS 2000 proceedings and on-line as part of the ICLS 2000 web site. No part of the material is subject to another copyright except those parts covered by permissions the undersigned has obtained. Copies of these permissions are enclosed.

I hereby agree to transfer to the University all rights under existing copyright laws except for the following rights, which I, the Author, retain: (1) The right to make copies of all or part of the published article for my use in teaching; (2) The right to re-use all or part of this material in a compilation of my own works or in a textbook of which I am the author; (3) The right to make copies of the published work for internal distribution within the institution which employs me; (4) The right to make copies of published work available via the Web on my personal web site. The University has the right to do anything else with the paper, as the copyright owner.

Any copies distributed by me will include an acknowledgement in the header of the paper as follows: “Copyright 2000, The Regents of the University of Michigan. Presented at the International Conference of the Learning Sciences 2000. Copies may be distributed with the University’s permission.”

I agree that copies made under these circumstances will continue to carry the copyright notice which appeared in the original published work.

All authors of this work have signed this form.
